Presses Rolling Again!

The reason for last week’s mysterious absence of this publication has been established. Some speculated that terrorists or the government had taken over the presses and were withholding vital information from the masses. Actually, sources have revealed that a mild mannered reporter for this great metropolitan newspaper was incapacitated with a touch of tummy bugs. Recuperation prevailed in time for tacos and beer Tuesday night at Dockside Grille.

Wine or Whine?

This week debuts a new, exciting, weekly game show hosted by Jerry Gaynor. Each week, Jerry will provide clues about a random member of CSR. Members will be given the chance to ascertain the mystery member’s identity for $1.00 per guess. Winners get a bottle of wine. Loser’s funds go to the Tex Everson Foundation. To get things started, the first clue will be: “Shot on national TV”.

The President's Message

Thank you, thank you, thank you!!! This club never ceases to amaze me. Four people stepped forward and joined other members in guaranteeing the future of this club and started giving monthly towards their pledge of becoming a Friend of Tex. One person is paying off his pledge and will become a Friend of Tex, plus three others are checking to see what their balances are. We're looking for four other members to start monthly contributions to Tex Everson to meet our goal of 75% participation. Thank you everyone!

Sounds like everyone at The Shoot Out had a great time and Operation Santa Clothes should benefit a bit. Thank you everyone for their efforts and a big thank you to the Covina Rotary Club for all their hard work and help in benefiting Operation Santa Clothes.

The "Symposium" or "Fellowship" or "Just have a Few Drinks" Dinner is waiting for its next sign ups. The dinners are very flexible in structure - it's up to the host. Two members can even team up and do a joint dinner (no Jon we don't need to borrow your gift from the Chief). If you'd like to volunteer to host the next Dinner (no matter how big or small) see Terry to sign up.

A fund has been set up for Peace Officer Scott Hanson's family. Officer Hanson is still in the hospital unconscious. If you are so inclined to help, please call the San Gabriel Valley Postal Credit Union or see Shirley Von.

— John
