Holiday Party Planned!

Galen has been frantically searching for the best place to hold this year's annual Holiday Fest. Finally, we have word that it will be held at Dockside Grill on December 8th. Cocktails at 6pm, dinner with entertainment at 7pm. All this for only $25 per person.

As is customary, we'll also be having our Holiday Breakfast the week before Xmas, on December 18th.

Thanks to Giving Politicians

Thanksgiving Day was originally declared by president Abe Lincoln in 1863 as the last Thursday of November. In 1939, Frank Roosevelt kicked it up a week to help stimulate depression era shoppers. Texas was the last state to accept the change in 1956.

The President's Spoke

Good Morning Fellow Rotarians and guests. Welcome to the Award-Winning Covina Sunrise Rotary.

It's already November and soon the Holiday season will be with us . A time of family get-togethers and time spent with friends. The days are getting darker earlier and the temperature dropping encourages one to light the fireplace or clean the heater.

It is a time to collect our thoughts of the year. Personally, I look forward to this time of the year as it makes me look back and wonder what could I have done better and what I can improve on next year. There's something about this time of the year that brings this out with me. Hopefully, I have learned how to improve the things I need to improve on and eliminate what doesn't work. The new year brings growth and optimism. I see good things ahead.

My sincere wish is for all of us in Rotary to continue to do the good things we already do and strive to do more for those who need us most.

Whether it's here at home or another country, it's all important. My wish continues with this note, that we continue to do the things we do for others, but with more participation from our club members.

We all have something special to share ,and the more members we have, collectively, the more we can do for others more effectively.

Please share the Magic of Rotary with others, invite a friend to the club. Let them decide if Rotary is right for them. If we don't ask...well, we made the decision for them.

Thanks — Westerdag

Today's Program:

Today's presentation is pretty much a mystery to the editor as of press time for this issue of the Squeeze. What ARE the odds? We'll see...

Joke of the Week

A man placed some flowers on the grave of his dearly departed mother and started back toward his car when his attention was diverted to another man kneeling at a grave.

The man seemed to be praying with profound intensity and kept repeating, "Why'd you have to die? Why'd you have to die? Why did you have to die?" The first man approached him and said, "Sir, I don't wish to interfere with your private grief, but this demonstration of pain is more than I've ever seen before. For whom do you mourn so deeply? A child? A parent?" The mourner took a moment, then replied, "My wife's first husband."

I Fought the Law, But...

Covina's Finest are no strangers to CSR, with their boss being a "member" and some of them actually being honored by our ceremony. In fact, they now pay special attention to insure that our members are safe from the wild, speed crazed hooligans that roam the streets around the Club. Here is an un-retouched crime scene photo of the apprehension of one Albert "Stugats" Marino as he ducked into our parking lot to evade citation.
