First Fellowship A Success!

Last Saturday, the first CSR Fellowship (Symposium) Dinner was held at the Wysocki’s with Hubbert, Metz, Perez, and Uptergrove in attendance. The booze was flowing, the meal was succulent, and the conversation was non-stop on a great night under the stars. Everyone wondered “why haven’t we done this years ago?” Hopefully, the event will take foot and a few members can get together each month to really understand where the word Fellowship comes from.

Rotary Yard Sale Still Planned

There is currently a search going on for a site for the upcoming Yard Sale. If you know of a good location that’s available for some weekend (and ideally has some space for pre-sale storage) let Westerdag know. And hold on to your old 8-track players for a few more weeks.

The President's Massage

At the last week's board of directors meeting, Dr. Tim Burlingame, Chairman of the Tex Everson Humanitarian Endowment reported to the board the latest financial position of the Endowment. Good news: after a couple years of negative returns, we are in a position to have a positive gain and distribute funds to needy causes. The Endowment will be accepting applications for grants towards the end of the year. If you know of an organization that is in need, let them know about the Endowment. The Endowment is able to grant up to 50% of the investment gains made during the year. As of June 30, the investment gains were over $12,000 and a net gain of almost $16,000. The Endowment has granted over $44,000 to date and has an account balance of around $185,000.

The specific purpose of this Endowment is to provide financial support for the sustaining and special charitable projects of the Rotary Club of Covina-Sunrise...in the area of community service, vocational services, and international service. I would like to thank the following people who have reached the Friends of Tex level, contributing at least $1,000:

Bill Hubbert	Joe Terror	Steve Skurrow
Dave Nemeth	Owen King	Shirly Von
Don Crouse	Henry Morgan	Dr. Tim Burlingame
Jim Adams	George Bradley	Bob Camp
Bill Fortney	Joe Geiselman	Richard Kirk
Al Marion	Howard Raff	Gil Tucker
Bob Remy	Armando Favel	Tom Miller
Craig Silvers	DD Everson

I would like to also thank the following people who are sustaining members of the Endowment, these members contribute an amount every month ranging from $2 to $25:

Mead Bailey	Don Boline	Dr. Tim Burlingame
Mike Catania	Ed Coper	Don Crouse
Tom Falls	Mimmo Femino	Gerald Gaynor
Bill Hammett	Bill Hubbert	Bobbi Kemp
Hugh Ledford	Mitch Morales	Roman Morales
Dave Nemeth	John Pellizzon	Jon Pomeroy
Pam Pomeroy	Steve Skurrow	Vikki Stapleton
Judy Starns	Joe Terror	Kevin Yriarte

Today's Program:

James Yoshioka— President / CEO, CVHP

Today's program topic is "Straight Talk about Hospitals & How to Fix our Broken Health Care System".

Coming Up:

8/26 Randy Scholerman—Water Engineering and You!

John's Overflow

Today we will be handing out pledge sheets for the Tex Everson Humanitarian Endowment. Please consider a monthly pledge. A Starbucks, a Venti Mocha coffee costs over $4.00, so maybe consider pledging one coffee a week or $20 a month. Be a part of building something really big for the future of this club.

One of the Club goals is to have 75% participation in the Tex Everson Humanitarian Endowment and as of today we are at 24 members participating. We need 8 members to step up and become a sustaining active donor towards becoming a Friend of the Endowment. Thank you for your consideration and thoughtfulness. Through participation in the Endowment, you will truly be "Lend(ing) a Hand".

— John

Joke of the Week

One day George W. Bush and Dick Cheney walk into a diner. A waitress walks up to them and asks if she can take their order. Bush leans close to her and says, "Honey, can I have a quickie?"

The waitress is appalled and yells at the President about women's rights and storms away. Cheney then says to Bush, "George, its pronounced 'quiche'."
