Bobbie Does Fellowship!

Last Saturday night, as promised, Bobbi and Chuck Kemp hosted the third CSR Fellowship / Symposium Dinner. On board were the Pomeroy's, Starnses (sp?), Uptergroves, Delachs, Wysockis, and Cpt. Ed going stag. As if great food, drink, and conversation weren't enough, Bobbi hosted a game called "Dirty Minds" that involved verbiage too rough to reprint in this conservative publication. The game was a real hit although we don't really remember who won. If you'd like to host an upcoming Fellowship Dinner (of any size and shape) and get together with Rotarians "after hours", contact Terry to get more information.

The President's Message

Good Morning Rotarians. Get ready, the Auction is coming, well actually the Auction Chairperson will be calling or knocking on your door. Judy Starns has her list of committee assignments just about completed, so when she calls please be ready to help. The Auction date is May 15.

The 9th Annual Rotary District 5300 Peace Conference is set for Saturday, March 27, 2004 in Pasadena. If you are interested in attending please see me for more details or go the district website, www.district5300.org. District Conference is scheduled for June 3-6, 2004 at the Irvine Marriott Hotel in (you guessed it) Irvine. This year's theme is "Get Anchored in Rotary". Along with the normal District Conference stuff there will be a golf tournament on Thursday, June 3 and also a tennis tournament on the same day. If you haven't attended a District Conference, you should plan on attending. The Saturday lunch is usually very popular with either the Dan Stover Music Awards or the Four Way Speech Contest. Both of these events will restore your faith in the younger generation, they're not all pierced green hair nuts going nowhere.

Thank you to everyone who came to the VIP lunch last Friday. VIP lunch is one way to help out the young kids and also make up a meeting. Thank you Tony Mejia for working with the cook at the Club to vary the breakfast menu. My only question is, Where're the refried beans? Have a great week and please "Lend a Hand". —John

Today's Program:

Today we think that Bruce Jacobson, who owns some insurance agency and is possibly a member of the Coast Guard Reserve, will speak about something.

Coming Up:

February 17th: Someone from the Mt. Sac Planetarium.

February 24th: Four-way contest featuring some kids.
