

FRESH DRIP

Volume II, Issue II.V

July 28, 2004

This week Nothing Happened!

Add to the fact that the amount of news generated this past week has been rather slim, the Editor of the Fresh Squeeze had scheduling conflicts which resulted in this abbreviated version of the legendary newsletter. Be sure to attend club next week and there may be an actual full issue of the Squeeze (or maybe not).

Small (font) Joke of the Week:

A blind man is walking down the street with his seeing-eye dog one day. They come to a busy intersection, and the dog, ignoring the high volume of traffic zooming by on the street, leads the blind man right out into the thick of traffic. This is followed by the screech of tires and horns blaring as panicked drivers try desperately not to run the pair down.

The blind man and the dog finally reach the safety of the sidewalk on the other side of the street, and the blind man pulls a cookie out of his coat pocket, which he offers to the dog. A passer-by, having observed the near fatal incident, can't control his amazement and says to the blind man, "Why on earth are you rewarding your dog with a cookie? He nearly got you killed!"

The blind man turns partially in his direction and replies, "To find out where his head is, so I can kick his ass."

Today's Program:

Today we will have a presentation from William Jennings, a schizophrenic rocket scientist. But then again, maybe he's not.

Next Week:

Kelly Hayes-Raitt is a political consultant and will be speaking about her two recent trips to Iraq and her images of life on the streets there.

Calendar of Events

August 26: Concert and BBQ Pot Luck dinner @Covina Park

September 9: Assembly Dinner at Citrus Grille

October 7: History Dinner for newbies and board

October 19: Visit from District Gov. Roy M. York

The President's Gossip Page

Good Morning fellow Rotarians! Things are coming together, with the help of some of your wonderful Board of Directors we are getting our first 6 months planed out! I love it when a plan comes together! On August 26, 2004 the Covina Concert Band will be dedicating that night's performance to Covina Rotary and Covina Sunrise Rotary. The concert will begin at 7:30 p.m. So we will do a BBQ, and pot luck for all our members and their families. Galen (Chef Boyardee) Metz has volunteered to BBQ Hamburgers and Hot Dogs complements of our club, and all we ask is that you sign up, how many in your group, and what side dish you can bring. Of course, it will be BYOB or soda as the case may be. Watch your bulletin for the time; and Laura will pass around a sign up sheet. It should be a fun evening for everyone. Let show support for our community and our club!

That is just the beginning, we are having an Assembly Dinner on the 9th of September, and a History Dinner on the 7th of October. Please look for the "schedule of events" in the Fresh Squeeze, and please remember to take it home so everyone in the family knows the dates to mark on the calendar! We also have some great ideas to help celebrate the 100 year of Rotary. As soon as we get some of the details pinned down we will let you know.

Rotary quiz: What was the date of the first Rotary meeting?

A) January 15, 1905 B) March 2, 1905 or C) February 23, 1905.

You will need to know!

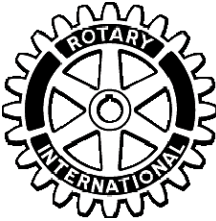

See you next week

— Judy

FRESH DRIP

Volume II, Issue II.V

July 28, 2004

This week Nothing Happened!

Add to the fact that the amount of news generated this past week has been rather slim, the Editor of the Fresh Squeeze had scheduling conflicts which resulted in this abbreviated version of the legendary newsletter. Be sure to attend club next week and there may be an actual full issue of the Squeeze (or maybe not).

Small (font) Joke of the Week:

A blind man is walking down the street with his seeing-eye dog one day. They come to a busy intersection, and the dog, ignoring the high volume of traffic zooming by on the street, leads the blind man right out into the thick of traffic. This is followed by the screech of tires and horns blaring as panicked drivers try desperately not to run the pair down.

The blind man and the dog finally reach the safety of the sidewalk on the other side of the street, and the blind man pulls a cookie out of his coat pocket, which he offers to the dog. A passer-by, having observed the near fatal incident, can't control his amazement and says to the blind man, "Why on earth are you rewarding your dog with a cookie? He nearly got you killed!"

The blind man turns partially in his direction and replies, "To find out where his head is, so I can kick his ass."

Today's Program:

Today we will have a presentation from William Jennings, a schizophrenic rocket scientist. But then again, maybe he's not.

Next Week:

Kelly Hayes-Raitt is a political consultant and will be speaking about her two recent trips to Iraq and her images of life on the streets there.

Calendar of Events

August 26: Concert and BBQ Pot Luck dinner @Covina Park

September 9: Assembly Dinner at Citrus Grille

October 7: History Dinner for newbies and board

October 19: Visit from District Gov. Roy M. York