

FRESH DRIP

Volume II, Issue III.V

August 17, 2004

Once again, we have the ol' Summertime news shortage so the editors only have enough politically correct content to bring you the Fresh Drip this week. Your subscription will be automatically extended to provide you with Fresh Squeeze coverage of all CSR happenings in the future.

Today's Program:

Today we will have a presentation from Mr. Richard Cletus from Seagram's Distillers, Inc. titled "Fine Liquors, From Crop to Glass" explaining nuances in the creation of various beverages produced by that company. It's not clear as to whether samples will be provided or not.

Joke Of The Week

A man left for work one Friday afternoon. But it was payday, so instead of going home, he stayed out the entire weekend partying with the boys and spending his entire pay check.

When he finally appeared at home on Sunday night, he was confronted by his angry wife and was barraged for nearly two hours with a tirade befitting his actions. Finally his wife stopped the nagging and said to him, "How would you like it if you didn't see me for two or three days?" He replied, "That would be fine with me."

Monday went by and he didn't see his wife. Tuesday and Wednesday came and went with the same results. But on Thursday, the swelling went down just enough where he could see her a little out of the corner of his left eye.

The President's Gossip Page

Good Morning Fellow Rotarians!

I have just returned from Las Vegas and a one day crash course on how to be your President. Oh boy, are we in trouble! Just kidding. It was a very productive meeting.

We started at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday morning, had a working lunch, and then finished up at 4:00 p.m. I can tell you I was brain dead by that time. But I did take some notes, and with the material that Governor Roy M. York, and two of his assistants gave out, I think I will be better organized and equipped for the job. I will be getting together with each one of the committee chairs and giving them some good information to help them fulfill their jobs better. This is not to say that I do feel good about some of the things we have already started working on. Some of the other Presidents in the room, (there were 4 of us) have had a rockier start than I have. The incoming President from Laughlin, Lewis Clevenger has had to replace 8 of his Board members! I am so glad that Ed had a good Board picked out for me.

This week I will be making some announcements regarding the Rotary International Convention in Chicago next June. They are expecting approx. 75,000 in attendance, so getting our hotel reservations in early is important. Hope that some of you are planning on attending. May this message find you and your family in good health.
